Assistant Principal	2015-2017

Dr. Cherie Wilkins is an experienced school administrator with 27 years in education as a teacher, literacy coach, and assistant principal in Arizona and Utah, primarily in Jordan School District. She served as an assistant principal at multiple elementary schools, and most recently at Foothills Elementary (2017–2023) as Principal.

Dr. Wilkins holds an Ed.D. in Organizational Leadership and Social Justice from Texas Tech University (2023), with research focused on collective teacher efficacy and English Language Learner achievement. She also holds a Master's degree from the University of Utah, an Administrative License from Western Governors University, and a Bachelor's degree in Human Development and Family Studies. Her classroom experience includes K, 2nd, and 3rd grades.

She is available to substitute for any administrator at any time, at all building levels, in Jordan School District, and is committed to maintaining a strong school culture, supporting staff, and ensuring continuity for students. As a longtime Jordan School District parent and now grandparent, she brings deep, personal ties to the district and its communities.
